Cim Insurance Limited is registered as Data Controller under the Data Protection Act 2004 (Act). In the performance of its business, all the personal data collected and processed (including the sensitive data) will be treated in strictest confidence. We will use our best efforts to ensure that data is accurate, complete, current and reliable for its intended use.

Supply of information in the form is mandatory. To this end, the use of personal information may include sharing the information with other persons or bodies, such as our intermediaries, other insurance companies, surveyors, investigative agents, reinsurers, actuaries, regulatory institutions, fraud and money laundering investigating institutions, whether in Mauritius or another country

The personal data provided may be used for data sharing by Cim Insurance Limited with other Cim Group companies to advise of, offer and supply other goods and services, for other marketing purposes in a way that is compatible with Data Protection and Privacy Policy (Privacy Policy). It will not however, be presented to a third party (unless otherwise stated in the form or required by law) without your specific authorisation to do so. This exercise excludes the sensitive data.

By signing the form, you are agreeing that your personal data may be processed in the manner hereinabove described. If at any time subsequent changes occur to your personal data or you have any enquiry relating to our Privacy Policy, you can send them in writing to our Compliance Manager.

➤ 7 - Declaration

I/We confirm that the above statements made by me/us or on my/our behalf are true to the best of my/our knowledge and belief.

Non-disclosure or misrepresentation of material facts could invalidate the insurance contract. Material facts are those facts, which would influence the acceptance or assessment of the proposal. If you are in doubt as to whether a fact is material you should disclose it.
